

Rohit Sharma and Rinku Singh first took India out of a disastrous situation and then completely turned the tables on Afghanistan to help the post a total of 212/4 in 20 overs. India were left reeling early on as Afghanistan's Fareed Ahmed and Azmatullah Omarzai descended down on them on a Chinnaswamy pitch that seemed to take the batters by surprise. India lost four wickets in the powerplay, three of which were picked by Fareed alone. Two of those wickets - those of Yashasvi Jaiswal and Virat Kohli, came off back to back deliveries, with the latter falling for a golden duck
